HUSBAND - John Tatum

NOTE: Many family trees give Mary Wright as John Tatum's wife; however, this is incorrect. The John Tatum who married Mary Wright was a different man, as documented by data at the website of the Daughters of the American Revolution, www.dar.org.

Interestingly, handwritten notes about family history by a descendant's (Dianne Doyle Stephens) deceased father say that this John Tatum and his brother Jesse fought in the American Revolutionary war. John died too early to have applied for a pension. The original war records burned about 1800.

- abt 1758            Perhaps Edgecombe Co. or Halifax Co., NC. John Tatum was born to Edward Tatum & Martha (probably Bynum).

- 1775/1783        Sometime during this period John Tatum served in the American Revolutionary War, and his brother Jesse served also. From handwritten notes about family history by a descendant's (Diane Doyle Stephens) deceased father. John died too early to have applied for a pension. The original war records burned about 1800, so the records we have today are from other sources.

- abt 1779            Perhaps Chatham Co., NC. John Tatum married an unknown wife.

- abt 1780            Chatham Co., NC. Son, Nathaniel Tatum, was born.

- 16 Oct 1782        Chatham Co., NC. Son, Hugh Tatum, was born to John Tatum & Unknown.

- abt 1785            Chatham Co., NC. Son, Edward Tatum, was born to John Tatum & Unknown.

- abt 1786            Chatham Co., NC. Daughter, Parthena Tatum, born to John Tatum & Unknown.

- abt 1787            Chatham Co., NC. Son, William Tatum, was born to John Tatum & Unknown.

- abt 1788            Chatham Co., NC. Daughter, name unknown, born to John Tatum & Unknown.

- abt 1790            Chatham Co., NC. Son, name unknown, born to John Tatum & Unknown.

- 1790               Hillsborough District, Chatham Co., NC. Federal Census, John Tatum. 1 male 16 or older (John), 3 males under 16 (Hugh, Edward, William), 4 females (wife, Parthena, unknown daughter, unknown other female), First Census of the US, printed, p. 86. Microfilm, p. 218.

- abt 1794            Pendleton District, SC. Daughter, Sarah "Sally" Tatum, was born to John Tatum & Unknown.

- abt 1799            Pendleton District, SC. Daughter, Mary "Polly" Tatum, was born to John & Unknown.

- 23 Jan 1798        Pendleton District, SC. Jesse Tatum was born. He was very likely to have been the son of John Tatum & Unknown. This information is from descendant, Michael Ritter, ritteratwork@hotmail.com, who has a family tree at www.rootsweb.ancestry.com, WorldConnect Project, entitled "In memory of my grandparents," last updated 21 May 2014; accessed 29 May 2015. Note that: in 1795/1800 an unknown son was born to John & Unknown, as shown in the 1800 and 1810 censuses.

- 1795/1800        Pendleton District, SC. Another unknown son was born to John & Unknown.

- 29 Jun 1798        Chatham Co., NC. Edward Tatum of SC sold to Joseph Harkney 250 acres where John Tatum formerly lived, on Haw River and Mill Creek, NC. [Edward was John's father.]

William Tatum (son of John Tatum and Mary Wright was born Bet. 1783 - 1784 in SC (Wolf Creek, Pickens Co.?), and died July 29, 1850 in Benton Co. (now Calhoun Co.), AL. He married Rebecca Miller, daughter of Jesse Miller and Martha (Patsy). NOTE: MARY WRIGHT IS THE WRONG WIFE. WILLIAM WAS PROBABLY BORN IN CHATHAM CO., NC.

_ Notes for William Tatum: moved to Alabama around the 1830s_1840 Benton County census William Tatum Roll M704_3 p 13 image 27 (found in 1850 see below)_1850 Benton co. census, where Martha and Henry were married, shows possible parents of Martha under family 555 p 85 (image 86 of 324) William Tatum, 67 b SC, with wife Rebecka, 56 b SC, son J. M., 25 b SC, and daughters S. A., 17 b AL and Elizabeth, 15 (shown b SC although this could be an error caused by the listing of Elizabeth above J.M. and S.A.) Assuming this was an error, this family would have moved to AL from SC between the birth of J.M. in 1825 and the birth of S.A. in 1833. Furthermore, if Martha's birthplace in 1828 is SC, the move to AL would have occurred between then and 1833.

_From Lem Pendley at lempen@aol.com, re: the above William Tatum: Will of William Tatum. State of Alabama, Benton County, March 16, 1849. I William Tatum being sick and low but sound and disposing mind do hereby make constitute and ordain this is my last will and testament. Item first after all must just debts and fureral charges are paid I do bequeth all the remainder of my property as follows, to wit: Item second all my real and personal property to my wife Rebecca during her natural life or widowhood with an exception of three beds and furniture which is now claimed by my three daughters Oma (This is Neoma), Martha and Eliza and it being my wish that they should keep and hold the same. I furthermore bequeth to my above named daughters Oma Martha and Eliza to each one cow and calf. It is futhermore my wish that my executors or administrators shall sell to satisfy my debts such property as he or they in their good judgement may see the family can best do without. It is further my wish that after the death or remarriage of my wife Rebecca that all my property ezcept those items above excepted be sold and equally devided between my eight children: Jesse M Tatum, Parthenia Pace, Sarah Boozer, Oma Tatum, Alpha Boozer, Rebecca A Anderson, Martha C Tatum, Eliza A Tatum, with an exception on one hundred dollars that I William Tatum paid for Isaac Pace, husband of Parthenia Pace, and the condition of the above is such should Isaac Pace account to my executors for one hundred dollars with interest, he is then to have an equal share with the balance codicil. Should my wife Rebecca marry she is then to have a childs part of all my property, and I do hereby constitute and appoint to execute the above my son Jesse M Tatum and Oliver P Anderson. CHILD 6 - [Female] Tatum

From the 1800 census for John Tatum.

CHILD 7 - [Male] Tatum

Presence of this male child of John Tatum is deduced from the 1790 and 1800 censuses for John Tatum, born about 1785/1790.

CHILD 8 - Sarah "Sally" Tatum

Sarah's last name was Tatum, according to handwritten notes on family history written by the father of Dianne Doyle Stevens. They are descendants of Mary Elizabeth Barnes, daughter of Martha Cannon and John S. Barnes.

CHILD 9 - Jesse Tatum

From 1800 and 1810 censuses for John Tatum. Male born about 1795/1800.

CHILD 10 - Mary "Polly" Tatum

Information from the family tree of Jerald Davis, who has a Family Finder autosomal DNA kit with Family Tree DNA.

From 1800, 1810, and 1820 censuses for John Tatum.

1880 Federal Census of Pickens Court House, Pickens County, South Carolina; Roll: 1238; Family History Film: 1255238; Page: 17B; Enumeration District: 128. Mary Haynes, 81, widow, born in South Carolina; Theney Bradley, 39; Pinkney Bradley, 41; Oscar Haynes.

The 1850 and 1860 censuses show her as younger, but vary widely -- 1800 in the first one and 1810 in the second.

There are references in family trees for Mary Tatum, who married Sheriff Haynes, that her grandparents were buried near her in Bethlehem Methodist Church cemetery (the church is now Bethel Community Church). The source of the information about burial was Mary's death notice (possibly in the Keowee Courier). Note from C.G.: I could not locate any 1884 copies of this newspaper. Many assume that Mary's parents were buried there, also. There are no surviving Tatum headstones today or a surviving headstone for Mary Tatum Sheriff. The family trees (found on www.Rootsweb.Ancestry.com, WorldConnect Project) say that at one time there seemed to be markings of graves at the foot of the lot for Mary's son Harper Haynes, who was buried there years later. I could not locate anyone to query about this when I did a search.

CHILD 11 - [Male] Tatum

From 1800 and 1810 censuses for John Tatum. Male born about 1795/1800.

CHILD 13 - John W. Tatum

From 1810 census for John Tatum.

1850 Federal Census of Subdivision 29, Benton Co. [later Calhoun Co.], Alabama; Roll: M432_1; Page: 347B.

1860 Federal Census of Ranges 8 and 9, Calhoun County, Alabama; Roll: M653_4; Page: 408.

1870 Federal Census of Precinct 8, Calhoun County, Alabama; Roll: M593_5; Page: 652B.

John W. Tatum, born in 1805 in Pendleton District, South Carolina, is often confused with Wilkins Tatum, born about 1806 in North Carolina. Both had wives named Eliza. John W. Tatum moved to Calhoun County, Alabama. Wilkins Tatum moved to Haywood County, Tennessee.

CHILD 14 - Nancy R. Tatum

From 1810 and 1820 censuses for John Tatum.

1880 Federal Census of Seventh Pct, Gordon, Georgia; Roll: 149; Family History Film: 1254149; Page: 163B;
