HUSBAND - Samuel Tatum I

Samuel Tatum & Unknown Wife, of Bermuda, Timeline[1]

NOTE: This Samuel Tatum may have been the son of William Tatham/Tatum and wife (1) Ellen Kerke or (2) Anne, baptized 8 Oct 1594 at St. Michaels Crooked Lane, London, England.[2] He was a haberdasher.[3] This Samuel Tatum may be the one who married Elizabeth Tomson in 1613 and had a son Thomas, who was buried Jan 1617.

bef 1600 Unknown location. Samuel Tatum was born to unknown parents. Date is only a rough guess.

abt 1615/1620 Unknown location. Samuel Tatum married an unknown woman.[4]

NOTE: Samuel Tatum of Bermuda "reputedly had the following children: Captain Nathaniel (2) Tatum, Sr., Chirurgeon (Surgeon) of Warwick and Pagent Tribes; Samuel (2) Tatum, Jr., of Somerset, in the Sandy Tribe; Nehemiah (2) Tatum, Councilor of Warwick Tribe; and Hannah (2) Tatum who married Charles Sothern. The name Samuel has descended in all of their lines."[5] abt 1616/1621 Unknown location. Hannah Tatum was born to Samuel Tatum and an unknown wife.[6]

NOTE: The birthdate is only a rough guess.

Oct 1619 Bermuda, established by 1609 as an area for settlement by the English Virginia Company, was settled by the new governor and the passengers of four ships.[7] "The appointed Governor, Nathaniel Butler, arrived with 500 people in four ships in October 1619, joining 600 persons already there. The new arrivals reputedly included [NOT PROVED] our Samuel (1) Tatum, a mariner, planter, trader, and member of the Council for Warwick Tribe. The first true record of Samuel is his signature, together with those of other planters, on a plea for growing more tobacco; their tobacco shipments were being held up by customs and they were in desperate need of money to carry on."[8] abt 1622 Unknown location. Samuel Tatum, Jr., was born to Samuel Tatum and an unknown wife.[9]

NOTE: The birthdate is only a rough guess.

1622 Bermuda. Samuel Tatam/Tatum/Tatem's name was not on the list of early settlers.[10] abt 1624 Unknown location. Nathaniel Tatum was born to Samuel Tatum and an unknown wife.[11]

NOTE: The birthdate is only a rough guess.

abt 1625 Unknown location. Nehemiah Tatum was born to Samuel Tatum and an unknown wife.[12]
NOTE: The birthdate is only a rough guess.

21 Mar 1626 (28 May 1626) Warwick Tribe, Bermuda. (Near Port Royal). The first record for Samuel Tatum/Tatam was on this date "when he signed a plea for growing tobacco in answer to the Company of the City of London for the Plantation of the Summer Islands," addressed to Capt. Hy. Woodhouse, Governor.[13],[14]

Sep 1626 Warwick Tribe, Bermuda. Samuel Tatam signed "Inhabitants Grievances" against a Capt. Stockes.[15] (This appears to be Capt. Thomas Stokes.)

20 Nov 1626 Warwick Tribe, Bermuda. Samuel Tatam was at the Council Table as Counsel for War.[16]

Mar 1629-30 Warwick Tribe, Bermuda. Samuel Tatam served on the Grand Inquest.[17]

1629 Warwick Tribe, Bermuda. Samuel Tatam sold 10 lbs. of tobacco to Goodwife Harvard.[18]

1629/1630 Warwick Tribe, Bermuda. Samuel Tatum served on the Grand Inquest in the Islands.[19],[20]

aft 1630 No further data have been found for this Samuel Tatum I.

abt 1636Bermuda. Hannah Tatum, daughter of Samuel Tatum, married Charles Sothern.[21] They had a daughter with an unknown first name, who married William Nelmes, II.

04 Mar 1643 Southampton, Bermuda. Samuel Tatum, II, married Ann Knowles, daughter of Damon and Ann Knowles.[22] They had children, Samuel III and Ann.

abt 1646Bermuda. Nathaniel Tatum, son of Samuel I, married Mary, perhaps Underwood, not proved maiden name. Their children were Nathaniel II, Mary, Elizabeth, Samuel, and Sarah.

11 Sep 1646 Bermuda. Abell Shingleton[23], of Barbadoes, mariner, contracted a debt to Nathaniell Tatem of Somers Islands (Bermuda), witnessed by John Clark and John Vaughn.[24] [This is the son of Samuel I.]

abt 1652/1662 Bermuda. Nehemiah Tatum married Patience Bullock, daughter of William Bullock and Patience Paynter.[25] They had sons John and Samuel.

Nov 1659 Warwick Tribe, Bermuda. Capt. Nathaniel Tatem, son of Samuel I, was a church officer.

1662 Warwick Tribe, Bermuda. Nehemiah Tatem, son of Samuel I, was a councilor.

1662-1663 Bermuda. Nathaniel Tatum, Chirurgeon, & Samuel Tatum II, sons of Samuel I, were listed in the Norwood Book of Survey 1662-1663 with land in Norwick Tribe and Somerset in Sandy Tribe, respectively.[26]

26 Mar 1670 Hamilton Tribe, Bermuda. The will of Charles Sothern, Gentleman, was made.[27] He named Grand- daughter Elizabeth Nelme and loving son in law William Nelme, Junr., her father. Granddaughter Hannah Nelme the Sound side share. Grandson William Nelme. Son in law Wm. Nelme, Junr., & Nathaniel Tatem, brother of my wife Hannah Sothern & Uncle of my aforesaid Grandchildren. Execrs. & loving friend Henrie Tucker, Sect. of the Somers Islands to be Overseer. Wit: Daniel & Henry Tucker. Proved 16 Oct 1671.[28] [This indicates that Hannah was a daughter of Samuel Tatum I.]

NOTE: "Wm. Nelme, the grandson, was born 1665. His father, Wm. Nelme, Junr. was b. Apl. 6 1634 & was son of Wm. Nelme & Elizabeth North who were mar. May 27 1633."

16 Oct 1671 Hamilton Tribe, Bermuda. The will of Charles Sothern, husband of Hannah Tatum, was proved.[29]

04 Nov 1686 Pagetts Tribe, Bermuda. Capt. Nathaniel Tatum made his will.[30]

NOTE: No will has been found for Samuel Tatum I. Were there any Bermuda records for Samuel after 1629/1630? There is an index to registers of wills 1648-1954 (Series RG 1001), Family History Library, Salt Lake City, UT, International Film 1667772. Also, Book of Wills, v. 1 1640-1686 (years missing). Perhaps Samuel died before 1648 and thus was not in the index, or perhaps he had a will that was in one of the missing years. Perhaps he even left Bermuda for some other location.

NOTE 2: As an argument for Samuel Tatum of Bermuda being the same man as Samuel Tatum/Tatam of London, researcher Ed Tatum, tatume@verizon.net, wrote: "The governor of Bermuda, Thomas Smyth, was also a member of the Worshipful Company of Haberdashers, and it seems to have had a hand in the early settlement of both Virginia and Bermuda, . . ." in email of 10/8/2016 5:27 PM to Cecilie Gaziano, cgaziano@prodigy.net; Ronnie Tatum,

This document can be found at www.ancestry.com, www.familysearch.org, and also other sources on the Internet. In this book, Richard P. Tatum speculates that the maiden name of Samuel's wife was Wainwright. A number of people have now assigned this name to Samuel's wife, but there is no documentation for this assumption.

[7] Wikipedia on 1 Oct 2016 stated: "In 1609, the English Virginia Company, which had established Jamestown in Virginia (a term originally applied to all of the North American continent) two years earlier, permanently settled Bermuda in the aftermath of a hurricane, when the crew and passengers of the Sea Venture steered the ship onto the surrounding reef to prevent its sinking, then landed ashore.

"The island was administered as an extension of Virginia by the Company until 1614. Its spin-off, the Somers Isles Company, took over in 1615 and managed the colony until 1684. At that time, the company's charter was revoked, and the English Crown took over administration. The islands became a British colony following the 1707 unification of the parliaments of Scotland and England, which created the Kingdom of Great Britain."
